The Trust shall also undertake measures to ensure the policy is appropriately and consistently applied across all Aspirations academies (e.g. training and/or access to specialist professional support).
- 4.2 Within each Aspirations academy:
1. the Principal has overall responsibility for the internal organisation, control and management of the policy. This includes responsibility for the collation and retention of the records necessary to enable the academy to have in place an effective monitoring system.

Job applicants will be informed that the monitoring data will only be used for equality monitoring and not for short listing.

Periodically, consideration shall also be given to whether to extend this monitoring to include other protected characteristics as defined in the Equality Act 2010.

- 5.4 Similarly records will be maintained of the whole workforce to enable analysis (for example: in respect of promotion, training and general employment practices) to promote equality and help guard against potential discrimination.
